

Effective Date: July 2021

Policy Statement

Ballina Bowling & Recreation Club Ltd Privacy Policy ensures honesty and integrity in meeting its obligations of the Privacy Act 1988 and the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012. The policy applies to all employees of Ballina Bowling & Recreation Club Ltd. This policy came into effect as of July 2021.

Purpose

Clubs with an annual turnover of $3 million or more, or with obligations under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing Act 2006, have obligations under the Privacy Act to uphold the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs). To ensure Ballina Bowling & Recreation Club Ltd meets its compliance responsibilities the aim of this policy is to ensure we abide by our legal guidelines in a consistent manner.

The policy must cover the following information:

- The kinds of personal information the Club collects
- How the Club collects and stores that information
- The purposes for which the Club collects, holds, uses and discloses that information
- How a person may access and ask for correction of their personnel information
- How a Club will deal with complaints

Rationale

Ballina Bowling & Recreation Club Ltd recognises that the personal information of members and guests is private and should only be used for the purpose it was collected. Although the APPs provide for the ability of people to act anonymously or use pseudonyms, obligations to identify members, temporary members and guests as per the Registered Clubs Act 1976 overrides this ability, as we are obliged to ensure we collect the true identity of patrons as they enter the premises.

Scope

The Policy applies to all Ballina Bowling & Recreation Club Ltd properties including buildings, vehicles and outdoor areas within Ballina Bowling & Recreation Club Ltd boundaries.

Privacy Policy of the Ballina Bowling & Recreation Club Ltd:

Use

The Club will only use your personal information for the purpose for which you have provided it, e.g. for application of club membership or to gain entry to the Club premises as a visitor or guest or for other uses as permitted by the Privacy Act or uses for which you have consented to having your personal information used for.

When or before the Club collects personal information, the Club will take reasonable steps to inform the individual providing the information of:

- the purposes for which the information is collected,
- where applicable, any law that requires the particular information to be collected.
- the main consequences for the user if all or part of the information is not provided.

The Club will be unable to allow you to join the Club or to be a temporary member, unless you have provided us with the required personal information. The Club will also be unable to provide you with certain goods and services or to join a Sub-Club, unless you have first provided the Club with the required personal information.

The Club will not use your personal information for any other purpose, nor will we disclose it, unless we have your consent or in other circumstances where such use or disclosure is permitted under the Privacy Act.

The Club may disclose your information to third parties that provide services under contract to the Club. These contracts require the third party to keep your personal information confidential and secure.

From time to time, the Club may wish to carry out a voluntary survey for feedback. Before collecting survey results, the Club will advise you of the purpose of the survey e.g. to gain information for the club to improve services etc.

Visitors and Guests

Under the Registered Clubs Act patrons visiting the Club must produce a recognised form of identification i.e. passport, driver's license or proof of age card to gain entry to the premises. The Club uses terminals to gather this information and to protect the data collected i.e. addresses of patrons. Scanning of licenses is optional, and if preferred, use of manual sign-in, via the terminals is available for patrons once the form of identification has been sighted by an authorised officer of the Club.

Surveillance of Venues

The venue of the Club is subject to video surveillance for security reasons. Details of suspected or actual illegal and/or undesirable activities on our premises may be shared with other clubs, law enforcement and regulatory bodies such as the Office of Liquor, Gaming and Racing and the Independent Liquor and Gaming Authority.

Personal Information Storage

Personal information is stored and archived for a period of seven (7) years. This includes information about non-members and internet site transmission logs. The Club relies on the information provided by members to be accurate and current. The Club will take reasonable steps to ensure that the personal information it collects, uses or discloses is accurate, complete and up-to-date.

If you believe the personal information we hold on you is incorrect please advise us in writing, sending your letter or email to the Privacy Officer using the details below. We will take reasonable steps to correct Club records appropriately and within a reasonable time frame except where the Privacy Act prohibits it or does not require it.

Access The Privacy Act allows individuals to access and alter records containing their personal information. If you wish to access the personal information the Club holds on you please provide a written request to the General Manager using the details below. The Club will provide you access to your information except where the Privacy Act prohibits it or does not require it.

To change your name on the membership database supporting documentation from a government source is required. Change of addresses can be done by request at reception.

Complaints: If you wish to make a complaint about the Club's use of your personal information please put your complaint in writing, providing as much detail as possible, and forward it by letter or email to the General Manager using the details below. The General Manager, or another representative of the Club, will investigate the complaint and will provide you with a written response following the completion of the investigation.
